

Dr. Andy Anderson Young Professional Award 2016 Nomination Package

The Dr. Andy Anderson Young Professional Award is given to one individual per province that best epitomizes exemplary work on behalf of the profession. One award will be presented in each province and territory.

Eligibility

To qualify for this award, candidates must be:

- A member of PHE Canada or a provincial/territorial association.
- 35 years of age or younger (although consideration is given to professionals in the early stages of late entry careers).

How to apply

To apply for this award, candidates must be nominated by a PHE Canada member or a member of the candidate's provincial/territorial association. Candidates apply directly to the provincial association.

Selection

Candidates will be evaluated on their contribution to the profession. PHE Canada provincial representatives make the final selection for the award recipient in their respective provinces/territories.

Award Presentation

The Award is presented at each provincial conference, during an awards ceremony.

Distinguished recipients will receive a plaque-mounted award featuring the R. Tait McKenzie Joy of Effort Medallion, and recognition in the PHE Journal. Recipients will also receive a letter of congratulations and promotion in their community.
